We have all heard of God's name expressed as "I Am Who I Am". Another was of stating what this expression of God's name is by what it implies – that God is being itself. God is not a being among others, but the very energy of existence. St Anselm, in the same vein, said that God is "that than which a greater cannot be thought". In the first letter of St John, he tells us that God's simplest and highest name is Love – "God is Love and those who abide in love abide in God and God abides in them" (1Jn 4:16).

Are these two ways of seeing God mutually exclusive? Can God as Being itself, be utterly transcendent, outside of all creation, sovereign, self-sufficient and all powerful but at the same time be truly intimate, with and within His creatures, thoroughly faithful and humbly passionate for creation? God is not either/or but rather both/and. It is because God is both/and that He can best be described as Love.

Love is not simply a quality of God or something He does in relation to His creation. No, love is the very being of God: what describes His deepest core and identity. We can see this in and through God's dealings with us. But God's love exists separate from His outreach to us. It is His very life. And that is why Christianity insists upon naming God as Trinity. So how do we get from the statement that God is Love to the dogma of the Trinity? Love can't exist in a vacuum. By that I mean that for love to exist there must be more than one person. There has to be someone who gives love, the lover, and there must be someone to receive that love, the beloved. If God is love, and He is, then there must be within the very nature of God a play between lover, beloved, and the love they share. Father – lover. Son – beloved. Holy Spirit – the love they share. To say that God is love means there must be this Triune quality to the unity of the Divine. This interplay of Love of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, was referred to as the Divine Dance by the early Church fathers. The Trinity is not some sort of puzzle for theologians to try to sort out or solve while not having any relevance to the spiritual life. This expression that God is Love should be for us the source and origin, as well as the end goal of our spiritual journey. We sinners are called to let go of our self, our self-absorption, our self-elevating ego, and surrender to God that is Love and to take part in the Divine Dance.

If we were to see God only as all-powerful, self-sufficient and lordly, we would see Him as far away, transcendent, indifferent to creation or maybe even hostile toward it – including us. And if we were to see God only as lowly, faithful, intimate with His creation, we would see Him as needy, like the gods of Greek mythology, needing our love and service to make Him feel whole and important. But we must see God as both/and. God is utterly transcendent and yet dwells within His creation. He is completely self-sufficient and thoroughly faithful to us. He is in no need of us and yet humbly passionate for us. And that is why God can best be described as Love.

SAINT BERNADETTE SOUBIROUS

April 16

With Immaculate Mary's "Ave Maria" for its refrain, Andy Williams' "Village of Saint Bernadette" peaked at #7 on Billboard's Top 40 at Christmas 1959, airing on radio stations all over America. Imagine! In some dioceses, today marks the feast of Bernadette Soubirous, the teenager who, combing a refuse heap for firewood, saw a "beautiful lady" who identified herself in words Bernadette faithfully reported to the bishop, though she did not understand their meaning: "I am the Immaculate Conception." Relentlessly interrogated, she never wavered in her story or sweetness. Chronically ill all her life and dead at thirty-five, Bernadette left behind the shrine at Lourdes where healing waters still flow from the spring that her "beautiful lady" pointed out to her.

The Catholic Sharing Appeal

(CSA) is a wonderful success story. It is the story about the Church here in Northwest Florida and the Big Bend, a story in which each and every one of us has a part to play. It is a local story of how the people of God have built this Church up to where it is now.

The Catholic Sharing Appeal was instituted when the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee was formed in 1975. Established without many reserves of its own, the diocese and parishes relied upon this vital funding source to carry on essential operations to survive as a local Church. Today, CSA continues to be used to allocate funds at the diocesan level for expenses that extend past the parish for regional responsibilities, while parishes retain funds received in excess of the goal for capital projects and programs within their parish.

By giving funds through CSA, the people of God assist their bishop and pastor in carrying out the three-fold mission of the Church: teaching, serving and worshipping. Since the accomplishment of the Church's mission is of foremost importance, CSA affords parishioners a special opportunity to fulfill their baptismal call to discipleship.

CSA specifically funds programs, services and functions that are coordinated from the Pastoral Center and are extensions of the Office of Bishop. The administrative divisions of the Church of Pensacola-Tallahassee include the Bishop, Vicar General, and Chancellor, as well as Secretariats for Communications, Financial Administration, Special Ministries, Social Concerns, Education and Apostolates. Some of these ministries attend to needs beyond the scope of individual parishes and some exist for the sole purpose of assisting parishes in their mission to teach, evangelize and provide good liturgical experiences.

CSA sets aside a time that offers us an opportunity to renew (rededicate) ourselves to stewardship through involvement in our parish and diocesan communities. Annually, CSA provides time for parishes to ask parishioners to make a pledge which helps meet the needs of the broader Church community.
